Scholarship List
November 16, 2020

Nebraska Career Scholarships Program

The Nebraska Career Scholarships program (offered through the University of Nebraska-Lincoln) supports students pursuing a degree in certain programs in high-demand fields to help fill Nebraska's critical workforce needs. Scholarship recipients can earn up to $8,000 annually ($4,000 per semester). Recipients are required to complete a Nebraska-based internship before graduation. For more information on application requirements and majors included in this scholarship, visit https://admissions.unl.edu/nebraska/a/g/nebraska-career-scholarship-freshmen/. Priority application deadline is December 1, 2020.

Mount Marty Prestigious Mission Driven Scholarship

The Prestigious Mission Driven Scholarships award up to $5,000 in addition to any guaranteed academic scholarships from Mount Marty. These scholarships are awarded based on essay response, interview and review of resume and service. Submit a 500 word essay to the Admissions Office at Mount Marty focused on one of the following: Mission, Rural Health & Stability, and Benedictine Calling. More information on these topics can be found in the Guidance Office. If your essay is selected, you will participate in an interview via zoom in January, 2021. Application deadline is December 15, 2020.

Smith Diversity Scholarship

Lutheran Family Services is excited to offer up to five $25,000 annual scholarships (renewable for four years) to graduating seniors from low-income, minority families who are Nebraska residents. Scholarship recipients are not obligated to attend institutions in the state of Nebraska. Students must maintain a 3.4 GPA or higher to renew their scholarship each year. Trade school attendees are also encouraged to apply and will receive $12,500 per year for two years. Students must maintain a 3.4 GPA or higher to renew their scholarship each year. For more information and to apply, visit https://www.lfsneb.org/smith-diversity-scholarship/. Application deadline is December 15, 2020.

UNO Scholarships

Visit https://www.unomaha.edu/admissions/financial-support-and-scholarships/types-of-aid/scholarships/uno.php for a list of scholarships available to incoming UNO students. Details are provided on how to apply, requirements for each scholarship, application deadlines, and award amounts.

L. “Ron” Letson Acacia Leadership Scholarship

Acacia Fraternity is pleased to announce one $1,000 scholarship and two $500 scholarships for young men who display motivation for personal success, an interest in developing and applying leadership skills, and who will be attending UNL for the 2021-2022 school year. Scholarship winners will be selected on the basis of merit as displayed on their application as well as an interview. Applications may be obtained in the Guidance Office. Application deadline is January 31, 2021.

Jackie Robinson Foundation Scholarship

The Jackie Robinson Foundation (JRF) Scholarship program awards up to $30,000 over four years to address the financial needs of minority college students to assist them in attending the undergraduate school of their choice and enroll in JRF’s celebrated “42 Strategies for Success Curriculum.” This four-year program guides JRF Scholars to effectively navigate their college environments, explore career options, develop leadership skills, and embrace a commitment to service. For more information and to apply, visit https://www.jackierobinson.org/. Application deadline is February 1, 2021